Palm Beach County restaurant openings we're most eager for in 2025 and where to find them

A taste of Tequesta: Bagel Bistro, Tequesta Table and Mood

Diners in Tequesta, a 2-mile stretch of coastal village just north of Jupiter, can find trendy dishes and hidden-gem restaurants.

Already a foodie paradise, Palm Beach County is continually adding great restaurants featuring scores of flavors worth sampling.

In 2024, the newcomers have included world-class barbecue, beloved New York City bagels, Mediterranean-inspired cuisine, Italian fare, taco joints and so much more. They have popped up from popular dining destinations like Atlantic Avenue in Delray Beach and downtown West Palm Beach to waterfronts and strip malls.

What will 2025 bring? Though 2024 will be tough to beat, there's already a pretty impressive lineup of new restaurants slated to open in Palm Beach County in the New Year.

Here are some newcomers to check out:
