Carousel Fine Art Opens Its Fifth Gallery with a Grand Celebration in West Palm Beach's NORA District

Boca Raton, FL – September 17, 2025 —The wait is over. Carousel Fine Art—known for transforming the traditional gallery model into an immersive, full-sensory experience—is bringing its signature roster of international artists and white-glove service to West Palm Beach this fall. Nestled in the highly anticipated NORA district, the gallery's latest location promises to be a cultural hub where art, luxury, and lifestyle converge in unforgettable ways.

Nora District

Already celebrated in Miami, Atlanta, Chicago, and New Buffalo, Carousel Fine Art has built a reputation for more than curating exceptional works—it's about crafting moments that stay with you. Visitors can expect private artist dinners, exclusive exhibitions, in-home consultations, and seamless installations designed to make acquiring and living with art a truly bespoke experience.

The West Palm Beach debut will feature acclaimed artists including Caroline Dechamby, Chance Cooper, Eric Alfaro, Isabelle Scheltjens, Mariela Garibay, and Jorge Luis Santos, among others, whose works are renowned for pushing boundaries and capturing imaginations.

In an exciting collaboration, TASCHEN, the world's leading publisher of art and design books, will also join the space, offering visitors access to collectible volumes and limited-edition pieces. Adding to the allure, Caroline Dechamby's Nomadic Goods collection—luxurious Italian leather handbags and accessories adorned with her art—will merge fine art with high fashion.

“We are beyond excited to introduce Carousel Fine Art to West Palm Beach,” said Philippe & Laura Horowicz, Owners of Carousel Fine Art Galleries. “This city radiates creativity and sophistication, making it the perfect home for our next chapter. We can't wait to welcome collectors and art lovers into the Carousel experience—one that goes far beyond the walls of a gallery.”

Doors open on October 1, 2025, with a season of special events and curated experiences designed to celebrate art, connection, and community in the heart of West Palm Beach. Celebrate with Carousel Fine Art at the grand opening on November 13, 2025, from 5-8 PM.
