Ok, winter is officially over. Don't panic. It's only spring, not summer and we've still got plenty of non-sauna-like days to enjoy all that South Florida has to offer. Now get out and enjoy live music at Rhythm in the Wild at Palm Beach Zoo, listen to cool jazz and see a live dance performance during Art After Dark/College Night at the Norton Museum of Art, run in the Live Like Jake 12th Annual 5K Run/Walk at Abacoa and more.

In addition to the top five events listed there's always something great happening at places like The Norton Museum of Art or the Maltz Jupiter Theatre. On top of that you could always just enjoy a great meal with an equally great view at one of Palm Beach County's waterfront restaurants from Jupiter to Boca Raton. Plus, we've curated a list of the best things to do all year in the county, and here it is: your bucket list of 60 fun must-try things to do in Palm Beach County.

1. Rhythm in the Wild, Palm Beach Zoo, West Palm Beach

The Palm Beach Post

This after hours music series will feature the popular and melodic duo Indigo Dreamers. They will provide a beautiful soundtrack to the evening which will also feature conservation stories, intimate animal encounters and more.

The Palm Beach Post

The event is 6 to 9 p.m. Saturday, April 25. 1301 Summit Blvd., West Palm Beach. 561-547-9453; palmbeachzoo.org/zoo-events

2. Earth Day at Loggerhead Marinelifelife Center, Juno Beach

This celebration will feature the Great American Cleanup, held directly on the beach behind the center. Guests will be given all the necessary equipment, and participants will get a free T-shirt (while supplies last). Resource Depot's 14th annual Student Catwalk Fashion Show will take place at 11 a.m. It will showcase designs by middle and high school students using discarded everyday items and inspired by the stories of LMC sea turtles.

The event is 8:30 a.m. Saturday, April 25. 14200 US 1, Juno Beach. Free. Information: marinelife.org

3. Live Like Jake 5K Run/Walk, Jupiter

The Palm Beach Post

This year's event will take place at downtown Abacoa in Jupiter with the signature theme: "Wear Bright – Stay in Sight." Participants are encouraged to dress in their brightest neon to help spread the message of drowning prevention and child safety. The Live Like Jake 5K, now in its 12th year, raises critical funds to provide swim lesson scholarships and to support families who have lost a child or have a child with critical medical needs.

The event is 7:30 a.m. April 25. 1267 Main St., Jupiter. $40.
