Palm Beach Roundup — September 18-20

By Stacy Carchman -September 16, 2026

Palm Beach County, Florida — September 16, 2026

From live concerts and Latin jazz to art exhibitions, wellness activities and family-friendly events, there will be plenty to enjoy throughout Palm Beach County this weekend. Highlights include a Wellness and Community Expo at Old School Square, an '80s music celebration in Boynton Beach and the UltraCon Comic Convention at the South Florida Fairgrounds.

Whether you're looking for something relaxing, entertaining or a little bit different, there is something for everyone. Check out some of the weekend's activities below.

Delray Beach

On Friday, September 18, from 7 to 9 p.m., Canvas and Groove will take place at Dead End Studio, hosted by the Art Deco Society. Join artist Sharon Koskoff for a fun BYOB paint-and-sip evening.

Also on Friday, Electric Avenue will perform live at Throw Social from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

On Saturday, September 19, at 8 p.m., the Hendrick Meurkens Quartet will bring the sounds of Latin jazz to Arts Garage.

For those looking to focus on health and wellness, Old School Square will host a Wellness and Community Expo on Saturday from 10 a.m. to noon. The event will encourage mindfulness, wellness and connection and will feature interactive activities for both parents and children.

The International Coastal Cleanup will also take place in Delray Beach on Saturday, giving local residents an opportunity to come together and help keep the community's coastline clean.

On Sunday, Donation Yoga by the Water will be held at Veterans Park. It's a chance to enjoy some movement and relaxation while taking in the waterfront setting.

Art lovers can also visit Old School Square throughout the weekend to see the exhibitions "Bury Me in Palms" and "A Pirate's Intuition."

And there is still time to enjoy Downtown Restaurant Month, which continues throughout September. Local diners can take advantage of special prix fixe menus for lunch and dinner while exploring some of the area's restaurants.

Boynton Beach

Music fans can take a trip back to the '80s at Legends on the Lawn, taking place Saturday, September 19, at 7 p.m. at the Canyon Amphitheatre.

The Banana Boat will also feature live music throughout the weekend. The Forge the Way Duo will perform Friday from 7 to 9 p.m., Saturday from 8 to 11 p.m. and Sunday from 1 to 4 p.m.

On Friday, September 18, the Boynton Woman's Club will host Pandora's Speakeasy Fundraising Gala, a special evening raising money for Pandora's Kids.

Nature lovers can head to Green Cay Nature Center and Wetlands on Saturday at 9:30 a.m. for a Butterfly Talk and Tour. The program is $5, and reservations are required.

West Palm Beach Area

Fans of comics, gaming, cosplay and pop culture can head to the UltraCon Comic Convention on Sunday, September 20, beginning at 10 a.m. at the South Florida Fairgrounds.

The Wellington Amphitheater will host another installment of its fall concert series on Saturday, September 19, at 6:30 p.m., featuring tribute performances celebrating Foo Fighters and Pearl Jam. Food trucks will also be available.

A Hispanic Heritage Festival will take place Saturday at 6 p.m. in the Village of Palm Springs. The event will celebrate Hispanic culture, heritage and community.

For those looking for a unique way to kick off the weekend, the Nora District, in collaboration with @eraclub.wpb and @coffee.clubcollective, will host Wellness Gone Wild on Friday, September 18, from 6 to 8:30 p.m.

The evening will bring movement, recovery and community to the Paseo area of the District, with yoga and Pilates classes, mobility activities, cold plunges, sauna sessions, massages, wellness vendors and a live DJ.

When: Friday, September 18, from 6 to 8:30 p.m.

Where: 845 N. Railroad Ave., West Palm Beach, FL 33401

With live music, art, wellness, nature and plenty of opportunities to get out and explore, Palm Beach County has no shortage of ways to enjoy the weekend.
